Child Protection

Learning about abuse can be distressing and, for some, it may remind them of past experiences; for example, as someone who experienced abuse or as an adult who failed to act when they suspected a child was suffering abuse. If this applies to you, it may be helpful to talk to someone who is experienced in providing support.

Introduction

Welcome to your course on Child Protection.

The purpose of the course is to:

- raise your awareness of abuse and neglect
- help you to recognise early signs that might indicate a problem
- show you how to take action if you know or suspect that a child or young person needs help.

Module 1 – Child Development

In this module we will cover:

- the difference between safeguarding and child protection
- children's developmental needs
- developmental milestones
- positive and negative influences on child development
- working in a child-centred way.

Please note

The terminology, legislation, guidance and practice relating to child protection vary between the different nations of the UK. However, the principles are broadly the same. Please see the 'Resources' tab for nation-specific information.

The course refers to 'children and young people' which includes babies, toddlers, infants, children and teenagers from birth right up to the age of 18.

Safeguarding or child protection?

By clicking on the PDF option, the course content will open as a PDF document (as pictured) that allows you to read through the course information at your own pace.

After having clicked on and read the PDF, you will then be able to complete the module questionnaire.
