Engaged Encounter is part of Worldwide Marriage Encounter. This is a Movement within the Catholic Church which aims to provide couples, who are engaged to be married, the opportunity to prepare more fully for their future lives together. The course is recognised and accepted as formal preparation for couples wishing to marry in the Catholic Church. Couples receive a certificate of attendance which is normally required by the priest who is officiating at their wedding. The Engaged Encounter marriage preparation courses are held over a weekend and are Catholic in origin and ethos. See here for details.
