

SSG Composers' Forum

Invitation to the Forum on 6 July 2013

---

Membership of the SSG Composers' Forum is open to those who are interested in composing music or writing texts for the Roman Catholic liturgy. If you would like to receive information about the Composers' Forum's activities, you are invited to join the SSG Composers' Forum email group. Just send an email to Alan Smith (alan.smith@mac.com) at any time. Please include your real name in the email message, as it might not be obvious from your email address. There is no need to provide your postal address, phone number or any other details.

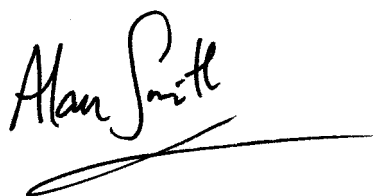

All communication about the Composers' Forum business will be carried out via email, so do please sign-up. Some people are already on the existing database, but if you're not sure, please apply again. Your email address will be used solely for the efficient administration of the Composers' Forum. We will not use your email address for any other purpose, either within or outside the SSG, and we will not give it or sell it to any third-party. We will use your email address to give you early notice of the Forum's various meetings and workshops around the UK; to send you resource materials from time to time; and to call for material to discuss at the meetings. Most of this information (but not the resources) will also appear on the SSG web forums and on its website.

The next meeting

The next meeting of the SSG Composers' Forum will be held at the Church of Our Lady's, St Johns Wood, 54 Lodge Road, London, NW8 8LA on Saturday 6 July, 10.30am (for 11.00) to 4pm. Hot drinks will be available, but please bring a packed lunch. The agenda is as follows:

- 10.30 Arrival
- 11.00 Welcome & Introductions
- 11.15 Discussion of compositions & texts – Session 1
- 12.45 Lunch
- 1.30 The Processional – a resource for composers (John Ainslie)
- 2.30 Discussion of compositions & texts – Session 2
- 4pm End

Please do not turn up unannounced, but join the email list and reply to the forthcoming invitation. This will help us to plan the meeting more effectively and to make it more useful for you.
